90-MINUTE CONVERSATION SESSIONS

Want to facilitate a conversation? Submit your proposal today! EDxEDNYC is seeking educators to facilitate meaningful discussions about current topics in public school education. The idea is to use conversation practice, rather than a presentation model to foster a dialogue with your attendees. Examples of conversational practice include: use of protocols, digital interfaces, co-creating a product, hands-on activities, etc. Submit your proposal today at www.edxednyc.com.

LUNCH TABLE 5-MINUTE LIGHTNING SESSIONS

Lightning sessions are quick slide-based presentations that tell a story. Using the PechaKucha method, presenters will give concise and meaningful talks on topics facing educators today. Five minutes, 20 slides, 15 seconds each. (See www.pechakucha.org) Submit your proposal today at www.edxednyc.com.
